

Dear Rosa —

Here's something we sent out in a big mailing to the press etc as soon as we read it in the newspapers. Along with a meeting announcement.

It's been so long since I've seen you. Any chance of your visiting England? I would love to see you again. Give my best to the other women and to Ferruccio when you see him.

Love + power,

Prisilla